III—ACTIVITIES

11. During this 6 month reporting period, have you engaged in any activities for or rendered any services to any foreign principal named in Items 8, 9, and 10 of this statement? Yes ☒ No ☐

If yes, identify each such foreign principal and describe in full detail your activities and services:

In accordance with the statutory responsibilities placed on it by the British Parliament, Development of Tourism Act 1969, the British Tourist Authority-US concerns itself solely with the promotion of tourism from the United States to Britain. BTA's activities in the US are non-commercial and fit within the guidelines laid down by the Member Agencies of the US National Tourism Policy Council, International Trade Administration, US Department of Commerce, in their Statement on the Activities of Foreign Government Tourism Promotion Entities in the United States (see attached 11/20/85).

Our offices in New York, Chicago, Dallas and Los Angeles provide tourist information to potential travellers to Britain, to the US media and to the US travel industry. Enquiries are serviced personally, by phone and by mail. Examples of BTA literature distributed as part of this service have been submitted with this statement. BTA representatives also took part in tourism promotional events, business conventions, training workshops and seminars. BTA, in general, co-operated with British and US travel interests in the promotion of business and pleasure travel to all parts of Britain. Details are listed in the attached sheet.

¹The term "foreign principal" includes, in addition to those defined in section 1(b) of the Act, an individual or organization any of whose activities are directly or indirectly supervised, directed, controlled, financed, or subsidized in whole or in major part by a foreign government, foreign political party, foreign organization or foreign individual. (See Rule 100(a)(9)).

A registrant who represents more than one foreign principal is required to list in the statements he files under the Act only those foreign principals for whom he is not entitled to claim exemption under Section 3 of the Act. (See Rule 208.)

12. During this 6 month reporting period, have you on behalf of any foreign principal engaged in political activity² as defined below?
 Yes ☐ No ☒

If yes, identify each such foreign principal and describe in full detail all such political activity, indicating, among other things, the relations, interests and policies sought to be influenced and the means employed to achieve this purpose. If the registrant arranged, sponsored or delivered speeches, lectures or radio and TV broadcasts, give details as to dates, places of delivery, names of speakers and subject matter.

13. In addition to the above described activities, if any, have you engaged in activity on your own behalf which benefits any or all of your foreign principals? Yes ☐ No ☒

If yes, describe fully.

²The term "political activities" means the dissemination of political propaganda and any other activity which the person engaging therein believes will, or which he intends to, prevail upon, indoctrinate, convert, induce, persuade, or in any other way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policy of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government, foreign country or a foreign political party.

Views of the Member Agencies of the National Tourism Policy Council on Activities of Foreign Tourism Promotion Entities
in the United States

Recognizing that international travel and tourism contribute significantly to national economies and to understanding between nations, the United States supports policies promoting the free flow of international travelers, in conformance with U.S. foreign and domestic policy aims. Also, in the spirit of multinational liberalization in international travel and tourism, we welcome the establishment in the United States of tourism promotion entities of other nations.

Tourism promotion entities of other nations in the United States, whether operated in whole or in part by a foreign government, may be required to register with the Attorney General under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, 22 U.S.C. 611 et seq., and may operate on a commercial or a non-commercial basis when promoting travel to their respective countries.

Foreign tourism promotion entities in the United States are encouraged to work with commercial tour operators, travel agents, airlines, hotels, car rental companies, steamship lines, financial service companies, and other travel-related firms and associations which cater to Americans traveling abroad.

Commercial Entities

In cases where foreign governments establish commercial entities in the United States which provide travel services direct to the public for a fee or cost, such entities are subject to all federal, state, and local laws and regulations relating to organization, taxes, employment, immigration, customs, records, and other applicable requirements. Tourism offices engaged in commercial activities should be aware that U.S. law provides for appropriate action in cases where specific acts or practices are determined to constitute unfair competition within the meaning of the law.

In accordance with longstanding practice, the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations, 23 UST 3227, Article 42, the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations, 21 UST 78, Article 57, and the U.S. policy as enunciated in Department of State circular Diplomatic Note of April 4, 1985, commercial activities are not permitted as part of the operations of diplomatic or consular establishments enjoying diplomatic and/or consular privileges.

Non Commercial Entities

When operating on a non-commercial basis, tourism promotion entities should provide promotional services free of charge. An illustrative list of services likely to be provided are the following:

- provide information about the tourist facilities and attractions in their respective homelands to the public, the travel trade, and the media;
- conduct or organize seminars, exhibitions, and workshops for representatives of the travel industry;
- distribute posters, window displays, and other sales aids to the travel industry;
- coordinate advertising campaigns and engage in other promotional activities;
- organize familiarization tours of tourist facilities in the country to be visited for U.S. tour operators, travel agents, and media representatives;
- engage in cooperative advertising with private or public sector tourism enterprises in order to promote tourism to the country to be visited;
- participate in trade shows;
- import promotion literature, including posters, to be given away rather than sold; and
- perform market research.

The above list does not exclude other promotional activities which would be acceptable.
